

Cattle industry update & facility open house

WHAT: Cattle Industry Update and Facility Open House

WHEN: Tuesday, March 13, 2012

AGENDA: 10:00 a.m. - Shenandoah Armory (601 West Ferguson Rd, Shenandoah)

Welcome

Cattle Buildings: Determining Financial Feasibility
Moe Russell, Russell Consulting Group

Environmental Rules and Regulations: Considerations for Cattle Feeders
Becky Sexton, Twin Lakes Environmental Services
Kent Mowrer, Coalition to Support Iowa's Farmers

Industry Update

12:00 p.m. - Free Lunch

Meal sponsored by the Iowa Beef Industry Council and served by the Page County Cattlemen

1:00 p.m. - Depart for Lorimor farm

1:30 p.m. - Meet at Brent and Steve Lorimor's farm (3485 170th St, Farragut)

Question and answer session

Self-guided tours of the new cattle facility

COST: Free

DIRECTIONS: To the Armory: From Hwy 59, turn east on 190th St./ W. Ferguson Ave. The Armory is on the north side of the road. There is a parking lot in front of the building. (If necessary, additional parking is available in the ballpark driveway, immediately east of the Armory.)

From the Armory to the farm: Head west on 190th St./W. Ferguson. At the stop sign, go straight (190th St. will turn into J32). Go 4.5 miles. Turn north on M16 and go 2 miles. Turn left on 170th St. and go approximately 2 miles. The farm will be on your right.

For more information, please call 1-800-932-2436 or visit www.supportfarmers.com/events

Page
County
Cattlemen

